

Future (Exercise)

Usage of Will/Shall

Exercise: 1

1. Choose the correct form of "will" or "shall" to complete each sentence.

- A. I _____ go to the store later. (will / shall)
- B. _____ you come to the party? (Will / Shall)
- C. He _____ be a doctor when he grows up. (will / shall)
- D. _____ we start the project now? (Will / Shall)
- E. They _____ visit their grandparents next weekend. (will / shall)

2. Rewrite each sentence using "shall" instead of "will."

- A. I will call you tomorrow. _____
- B. They will finish the project on time. _____
- C. She will be a great teacher. _____
- D. We will visit the museum next week. _____
- E. He will cook dinner tonight. _____

3. Rewrite each sentence using "will" instead of "shall."

- A. Shall we go to the park later? _____
- B. Shall I help you with your homework? _____
- C. Shall they bring their own equipment? _____
- D. Shall I tell him the truth? _____
- E. Shall we meet at the restaurant at 7? _____

4. Complete the conversation using "will" or "shall."

- A. Rahul: Hi, do you want to come to the movies with me tonight?
- B. Raman: Sure, what movie are we going to see?
- C. Rahul: We're going to see the new action movie that just came out.
- D. Raman: Sounds exciting! What time _____ we meet?
- E. Rahul: Let's meet at 7:00 in front of the theater.
- F. Raman: Okay, I _____ be there on time.

