

Present Perfect and Past Perfect (Exercise)

Present Perfect Continuous Tense

Exercise: 1

1. Fill in the blanks with the Present Perfect Continuous Tense.

- A. She _____ (study) for six hours.
- B. I _____ (wait) for you for two hours.
- C. They _____ (play) football since morning.
- D. He _____ (work) at the factory for ten years.
- E. We _____ (swim) in the sea for an hour.

2. Write sentences in the Present Perfect Continuous Tense.

- A. (I / learn / French / for two months) _____
- B. (She / play / the piano / for an hour) _____
- C. (They / study / for the exam / since morning) _____
- D. (He / work / on the project / for three weeks) _____
- E. (We / watch / TV / for two hours) _____

3. Rewrite the sentences using the Present Perfect Continuous Tense.

- A. I started learning English last year.(learn)
- B. She began writing the book in June.(write)
- C. They started working on the project two weeks ago.(work)
- D. He began playing tennis at the age of ten.(play)
- E. We started living in this house ten years ago. (live)

