

Modals (Exercise)

May/Might

Exercise: 1

1. Complete the sentences with "may" or "might".

- A. I _____ go to the beach tomorrow if the weather is good.
- B. He _____ be late, we should wait for him.
- C. She _____ not come to the party tonight because she has to work.
- D. They _____ not have any more tickets available for the concert.
- E. We _____ have dinner together tonight, but I'm not sure yet.
- F. The train _____ be delayed due to construction on the tracks.
- G. I _____ have left my keys at home, I can't find them.
- H. He _____ not have enough money to pay for the dinner.
- I. She _____ go to bed early tonight because she has an early morning tomorrow.
- J. They _____ not be able to finish the project on time.

2. Choose the correct form of "may/might" to complete the sentences.

- A. You _____ (may/might) want to bring an umbrella, it looks like it's going to rain.
- B. I'm not sure if she'll be there, she _____ (may/might) have other plans.
- C. He _____ (may/might) have forgotten about the meeting, we should remind him.
- D. We _____ (may/might) have to work late tonight, so don't make any plans.
- E. _____ (May/Might) I borrow your pen for a moment?
- F. They _____ (may/might) not have enough experience for the job.
- G. She _____ (may/might) have already left for the airport, so we should hurry.

H. He _____ (may/might) not have time to meet with us today.

I. _____ (May/Might) I ask you a question?

J. It _____ (may/might) be difficult to find a parking spot downtown.

3. Write sentences using "may/might" and the words provided.

A. I / not be / able / come / to the party

B. She / need / some help / with her homework

C. We / have / a lot of work / to do / tomorrow

D. He / forget / his keys / at home

E. They / not know / how / to fix / the problem
