

Compound Noun

Exercise 1:

Choose the correct compound noun to complete the sentences.

- A. She put the _____ on the dining table.

Options: tablecloth, clothtable, table- cloth, table cloth

- B. He bought a new _____ for his car.

Options: headlight, lighthouse, head-light, head light

- C. The _____ was filled with water after the rain.

Options: raincoat, coatrain, rain-coat, rain coat

- D. She wore a beautiful _____ to the wedding.

Options: bridesmaid, maid-bride, bride-maid, bride maid

- E. They went for a hike in the _____.

Options: wilderness, wildness, wild-ness, wild ness

Exercise 2:

Combine the two words to create a compound noun for each definition.

- A. A place where people store their money.
- B. A person who studies the stars and planets.
- C. A vehicle used for fighting fires.
- D. A machine used to wash clothes.
- E. A person who designs buildings and structures.

Exercise 3:

Rewrite the following sentences, replacing the compound nouns with their individual words.

- A. She put the suitcase in the overhead compartment.
- B. He wore a raincoat to protect himself from the rain.
- C. The football game was played in the stadium.
- D. The bookshelf was filled with books of different genres.
- E. She used a paperclip to hold the papers together.

