

Slow and fast changes

Slow changes are those which occur very slowly. On the other hand, fast changes are those which occur very fast.

Example for Slow Change

- Rusting of iron
- Growth of plants
- Curdling of milk

Example for Fast Change

- Lighting of electric bulb
- Bursting of a balloon
- Burning of paper

Rusting of Iron