

Daisy Chaining

A large hub can attach up to 24 computers. A network that has more than 24 computers can use two or more hubs connected together. Connecting two or more hubs is referred to as daisy chaining.

