

Name _____

Date _____

Homonyms

- ♣ Words that have the same spelling and same pronunciation, but they have different meanings.

Directions: Choose the meaning of the word used in each sentence.

Example: Cinderella danced at the ball. b (a) a toy
The dog chased the ball. a (b) a dance

1. The fly was bussing around the food. (a) become airborne
I don't like to fly in a helicopter. (b) an insect
2. Please light the candle. (a) opposite of heavy
Since it was light, I was able to lift it. (b) ignite
3. We had a roast for dinner last night. (a) cooking method
I am going to roast the potatoes. (b) a cut of meat
4. A squirrel stores food for the winter. (a) to put away
The new mall has hundreds of stores. (b) retail establishments
5. My uncle works at the electric plant. (a) a factory
Mom sent me to buy a tomato plant. (b) a tree, shrub, bush
6. Sarah only drinks natural spring water. (a) to jump up
He will scream and spring from the chair. (b) underground water
 (a) unable to see
7. The cat looked through the wooden blind. (b) a window covering
Helen Keller was both deaf and blind. (a) a container
8. Can you go to the movies with me? (b) able to
Jimmy ate a whole can of peaches. (a) an illness
9. Dan cannot take us because he has a cold. (b) opposite of hot
It is too cold to swim in the pool today. (a) opposite of up
10. My down comforter is so soft and cozy. (b) soft feathers
We flew down the hill on the sled.

Homonyms

- ♣ Words that have the same spelling and same pronunciation, but they have different meanings.

Directions: Choose the meaning of the word used in each sentence.

Example: Cinderella danced at the ball. b

(a) a toy

The dog chased the ball. a

(b) a dance

1. The fly was bussing around the food. b
I don't like to fly in a helicopter. a
(a) become airborne
(b) an insect
2. Please light the candle. b
Since it was light, I was able to lift it. a
(a) opposite of heavy
(b) ignite
3. We had a roast for dinner last night. b
I am going to roast the potatoes. a
(a) cooking method
(b) a cut of meat
4. A squirrel stores food for the winter. a
The new mall has hundreds of stores. b
(a) to put away
(b) retail establishments
5. My uncle works at the electric plant. a
Mom sent me to buy a tomato plant. b
(a) a factory
(b) a tree, shrub, bush
6. Sarah only drinks natural spring water. b
He will scream and spring from the chair. a
(a) to jump up
(b) underground water
7. The cat looked through the wooden blind. b
Helen Keller was both deaf and blind. a
(a) unable to see
(b) a window covering
8. Can you go to the movies with me? b
Jimmy ate a whole can of peaches. a
(a) a container
(b) able to
9. Dan cannot take us because he has a cold. a
It is too cold to swim in the pool today. b
(a) an illness
(b) opposite of hot
10. My down comforter is so soft and cozy. b
We flew down the hill on the sled. a
(a) opposite of up
(b) soft feathers