

Cleanliness and its Importance

A. Choose the Correct Answer:

1. Why is cleanliness important?
 - a) To spread germs
 - b) To keep the environment dirty
 - c) To prevent diseases and maintain good health
 - d) To increase pollution
2. Which of the following is a good cleanliness habit?
 - a) Throwing garbage on the road
 - b) Washing hands before eating
 - c) Wearing dirty clothes
 - d) Leaving food uncovered
3. What is the best way to keep the surroundings clean?
 - a) Littering in public places
 - b) Using dustbins for waste disposal
 - c) Burning plastic waste
 - d) Throwing garbage in rivers

B. Fill in the Blanks:

1. Cleanliness helps in preventing the spread of _____.
2. We should wash our _____ before and after eating.
3. Keeping our surroundings clean reduces _____ pollution.

C. Case Study:

Rohan and his friends visited a park for a picnic.

- They noticed that some people were throwing wrappers and plastic bottles on the ground.
- Rohan and his friends decided to clean the area by picking up the waste and putting it in the dustbin.
- They also explained to others the importance of keeping the park clean.
- The park looked neat and tidy, and everyone appreciated their efforts.

Case Study Questions:

1. What problem did Rohan and his friends notice in the park?

-
2. What did they do to keep the park clean?
 3. Why is it important to use dustbins for waste disposal?
 4. How did their action benefit the environment?

D. Short Answer Questions:

1. What is cleanliness?
2. Why is it important to wash hands regularly?
3. How does cleanliness help prevent diseases?

E. Long Answer Questions:

1. Explain the importance of cleanliness for personal health and the environment.
 2. Describe five good cleanliness habits everyone should follow.
 3. How can schools and communities promote cleanliness and hygiene? Give examples.
- 