

The Sentence

A. Choose the correct Answer:

1. Which of the following is a complete sentence?

- (a) A beautiful bird
- (b) Flying in the sky
- (c) The bird is flying in the sky.
- (d) The bird

2. What does a sentence always begin with?

- (a) A comma
- (b) A small letter
- (c) A question mark
- (d) A capital letter

3. Identify the group of words that makes complete sense:

- (a) Boy a is running
- (b) A boy is running.
- (c) Running is boy
- (d) A boy

4. Which part of the sentence tells about the subject?

- (a) Capital letter
- (b) Action part
- (c) Naming part
- (d) Full stop

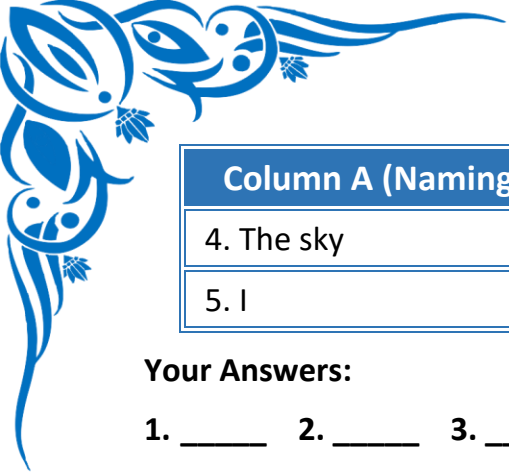

5. Which of these sentences has both naming and action parts?

- (a) A tall tree
- (b) Is tall
- (c) The tall tree is swaying
- (d) Swaying the tree

B. Match the Following

Match the sentence parts correctly.

Column A (Naming part)	Column B (Action Part)
1. The sun	(a) has four legs
2. A cow	(b) is blue
3. My sister	(c) rises in the east

Column A (Naming part)	Column B (Action Part)
4. The sky	(d) goes to school every day
5. I	(e) am learning English

Your Answers:

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____ 5. _____

C. Fill in the Blanks

1. A sentence must always begin with a _____ letter.
2. The part that tells what the sentence is about is called the _____ part.
3. The _____ part tells us more about the naming part.

D. Rearranging Words

Rearrange the words to make meaningful sentences.

1. love / to / I / read / books
2. a / is / dog / pet / my
3. is / the / in / sky / sun / the
4. school / to / Rahul / goes / every day

E. Subjective Questions

1. Write one sentence about your best friend.
2. Underline the naming part and circle the action part:
 - The cat is sleeping on the mat.
3. Write two complete sentences about yourself.