

Punctuation

A. Choose the correct Answer:

1. She _____ a new pencil box.
(a) has (b) have
(c) had (d) None
2. Which sentence is correctly punctuated?
(a) do you like pizza (b) Do you like pizza?
(c) do you like pizza. (d) None
3. Pick the correct joining word: He is tired _____ he will go to bed early.
(a) or (b) but
(c) so (d) None
4. Identify the position word in the sentence:
"The cat is under the table".
(a) is (b) under
(c) table (d) None
5. What is a declarative sentence?
(a) A sentence that asks a question
(b) A sentence that shows feelings
(c) A sentence that gives information
(d) A sentence that gives a command
6. What is the common gender noun in the sentence: "The teacher praised all students".
(a) teacher (b) praised
(c) students (d) all

B. Match the Following

Match the punctuation mark with its correct use:

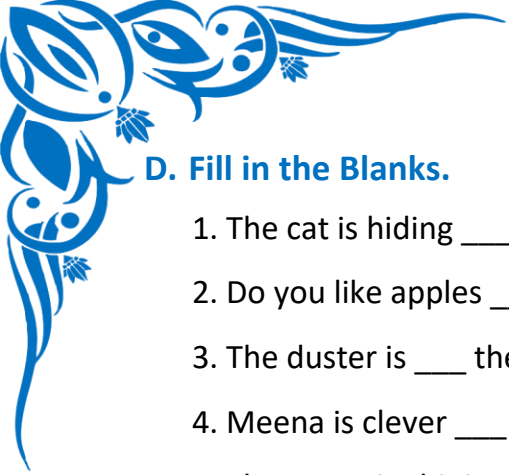

Column A	Column B
1. Full Stop (.)	(a) At the end of a question
2. Question Mark (?)	(b) Start of a sentence or proper noun
3. Capital Letter	(c) At the end of a statement

Your Answers: 1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____ 5. _____

C. Match the Following

Match the word type to example:

Column A	Column B
1. Verb	(a) under
2. Preposition	(b) eat
3. Joining Word	(c) but

D. Fill in the Blanks.

1. The cat is hiding ____ the chair.
2. Do you like apples ____ bananas?
3. The duster is ____ the teacher's table.
4. Meena is clever ____ careless.
5. The moon is shining ____ the clouds.

E. Short Answer

1. Use the joining word and to write a sentence.
2. Use the joining word but to write a sentence.
3. Use the position word between in a sentence.
4. Look around your room and write two sentences using position words.

E. Picture-Based and Creative

1. Draw a scene and describe it using any 3 position words and 2 joining words.

Example: The sun is above the house. The boy and the girl are playing.