

Plants

Question: Which of the following sentences is not true about the functions of leaves?

- (a) Leaves can store water and food.
- (b) Leaves have tiny pipes to carry water and nutrients.
- (c) Leaves of some plants help in reproduction.
- (d) Leaves devoid of chlorophyll make food through photosynthesis.

Answer:-d

Question: Identify the incorrect statement.

- (a) Transpiration is the process by which a plant loses water.
- (b) Seed dispersal in plants is not dependent on external factors.
- (c) Germination is the process by which a seed grows into a sapling.
- (d) Transportation of food from leaves takes place via stems to roots.

Answer:-b

Question: Big plants are called

- a) trees
- b) shrubs
- c) herbs
- d) climbers

Answer: trees

Question: Medium sized plants are called

- a) shrubs
- b) none of these
- c) climbers
- d) creepers

Answer: shrubs

Question: Very small plants are called

- a) herb
- b) both
- c) creepers
- d) none of these

Answer: herb

Question: Plants that need support to grow are called

- a) creepers
- b) none of these
- c) herb
- d) Both

Answer: creepers

Question: Plants that grow on the ground are called

- a) climbers
- b) none of these
- c) creepers
- d) herbs

Answer: climbers

Question: Trees give us shade and clean air to

- a) breathe
- b) none of these
- c) bath
- d) drink

Answer: breathe

Question: Rose plant is a

- a) herb
- b) creeper
- c) shrub
- d) climber

Answer: herb

Question: _____ have weak stems.

- a) both
- b) climbers
- c) creepers
- d) none of these

Answer: both

Question: Seed need air water and _____ to grow in to a plant.

- a) sunlight
- b) flower
- c) fruit
- d) none of these

Answer: sunlight