

Wildlife Conservation

A. Choose the Correct Answer:

1. What is the main aim of wildlife conservation?
 - a) To create forests
 - b) To build more zoos
 - c) To protect wild animals and their habitats
 - d) To keep animals in cages
2. Which of the following is a protected area for wildlife in India?
 - a) Botanical garden
 - b) Zoo
 - c) Wildlife sanctuary
 - d) Aquarium
3. The Project Tiger was launched to:
 - a) Train tigers
 - b) Increase tourism
 - c) Protect tigers from extinction
 - d) Hunt tigers legally

B. Fill in the Blanks:

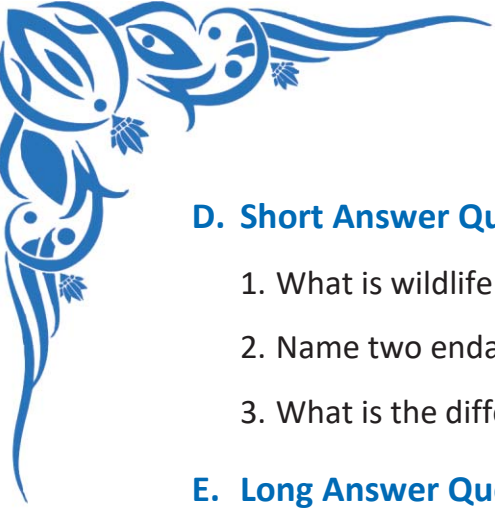

1. Wildlife conservation helps in maintaining the _____ balance.
2. The _____ Forest in Gujarat is the only natural habitat of the Asiatic lion.
3. An area where animals are protected in their natural habitat is called a _____.

C. Case Study:

A group of students visited Jim Corbett National Park and learned about endangered species like the Bengal tiger and the steps taken to protect them. The park officials explained how habitat loss and poaching have reduced the number of wild animals and how the park provides a safe home for them.

Case Study Questions:

1. What did the students learn during their visit to Jim Corbett National Park?
2. Name one endangered species found in the park.
3. What are the two major threats to wildlife mentioned in the case study?
4. How do wildlife parks help in conservation?

D. Short Answer Questions:

1. What is wildlife conservation?
2. Name two endangered animals found in India.
3. What is the difference between a national park and a zoo?

E. Long Answer Questions:

1. Why is wildlife conservation important? Discuss various ways to conserve wildlife.
2. Explain how human activities are affecting wildlife and what measures can be taken to reduce this impact.
3. Describe different types of protected areas for wildlife in India and their roles in conservation.