

THE AILING PLANET: THE GREEN MOVEMENT ROLE

1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow:

The earth's vital signs reveal a patient in declining health. We have begun to realise our ethical obligations to be good stewards of the planet and responsible trustees of the legacy to future generations.

- i. Who is the author of the Article:
- ii. What does the author want to convey when he says, realise our ethical obligation'
 - a. Man should exploit nature resources
 - b. Man can destroy the natural world.
 - c. Man Should make a balance between natural resources and development.
 - d. Man should make development without showing any concern to the nature world.
- iii. How can we become a responsible trustee of the legacy?
 - a. By destroying the natural world
 - b. By bringing other alternative of natural resources.
 - c. By handing over a rich natural world to next generation.
 - d. By making faster progress
- iv. Who, according to author, is good steward?
 - a. One who does farming activity
 - b. One who safeguard the natural world and return it with more resources
 - c. One who utilize natural resources without considering the needs of the future generation.
 - d. None of these

2. Read the stanza given below and answer the questions that follow:

When did my childhood go?
Was it the day when I ceased to be eleven.
Was it the time I realized that hell and heaven,
Could not be found in Geography,
Was that the day

- i. Name the poem and the poet.

