Gwalior

March 17 20 ____

Dear Mahip

I've just returned from Kanyakumari, which is far in South India.

It is a very beautiful place. It is surrounded by sea on three sides. It looks best at sunrise and at sunset. It is the only place from where we can see the sun rising from and setting in the sea.

I collected a lot of shells of different colours and shapes. I also saw the Vivekananda Rock. I wanted to see some more places also, but the trip was a short one.

Reply and tell how you spent your holidays.
