Let's Write

A. Message Writing

A message is a spoken or written communication.

Important Points:

- ❖ Write the word Message on the top.
- ❖ Mention the Date and Time when the message is written. Date can be written on the left hand side and time on the right hand side.
- ❖ Begin with a brief salutation.
e.g., Arun or Dear Uncle. Write the name of the person for whom the message is meant.
- ❖ Write all the important points. Do not add anything of your own. Clearly mention the name of the person who has given the message.

- ❖ The name/signature of the person who has written the message should be put at the end of the message.
- ❖ Be precise and informative. Body of the message should not exceed 50 words.

You are Mrinal, who has just heard on a local channel that there will be no supply of water in the evening. Leave a written message for your mother, as you have to go to a friend's house and your mother is not at home.

MESSAGE

16 June, 20.....

3 p.m.

Dear Mom

I have just heard on a local channel that there will be no supply of fresh water in the evening. I am going to Avinash's house. Will be back by 6 p.m.

Mrinal

A. Write a message to be left on Pulin's study table, about a telephone call received for him when he was away.

Telephonic Conversation

Ravi : Hello! Is it 2797300? Could I talk to Pulin?

Suhel : Sorry, Pulin has gone for his squash practice.

Ravi : Could you convey my message to him when he returns?

Suhel : Yes, I'll.

Ravi : Please tell him that I have left my water bottle and my tiffin on the window sill in the class room. My tiffin and water bottle are of blue colour. Tell him to bring them along. I'm going to my uncle's house for a week. I'll collect both the things from him on my return.

Suhel : I will tell him so.

Ravi : Thank you.
