

Types of Beaks

1. Answer the following questions.

A. Which beaks help the bird to tear flesh?

B. Which type of beak help birds to pick up and crush?

C. Which birds have curved and hooked beak?

D. Which type of beak help birds to pull – out insects from the holes of the ground?

E. Which bird has broad and short beaks?

2. Fill in the blanks:-

- A. _____ has a broad, flat and spoon like beak.
- B. Broad and short beaks are _____ from inside.
- C. _____ beak sucks the muddy water.
- D. When _____ fly they keep their beak open to catch flying insects.
- E. _____ has a chisel shaped beak.

3. True / False:-

- A. Woodpecker taps the bark of the tree to eat the worms.
- B. Woodpecker make nest with his strong beak.
- C. Pigeon has curved and hooked beaks.
- D. Vulture is a flesh eater bird.
- E. Peacock has sharp and curved beaks.

4. Matching-

Column A	Column B
i. Sparrow	A. strong, sharp and curved beaks
ii. Parrot	B. broad, flat and spoon beak
iii. Sun bird	C. strong, hard and horny beak
iv. Duck	D. curved and hooked beak
v. Owl	E. long and thin beak