

Degrees of Comparison

A. Choose the correct Answer;

1. Which of the following is the comparative form of "happy"?

- (a) happiest (b) more happy
(c) happier (d) mort happy

2. "Seema is the _____ girl in the class."

- (a) fat (b) fatter
(c) fattest (d) more fat

3. Which adjective follows the pattern:
Positive – Comparative – Superlative as good – better – best?

- (a) kind (b) bad
(c) big (d) heavy

4. Which of the following uses the positive degree?

- (a) This book is better than that one.
(b) This is the best book.
(c) This is a good book.
(d) This book is more interesting.

5. Choose the correct sentence:

- (a) He is more stronger than me.
(b) He is stronger than me.
(c) He is strongest than me.
(d) He is strong than me.

B. Match the Following;

(Match the positive with comparative and superlative)

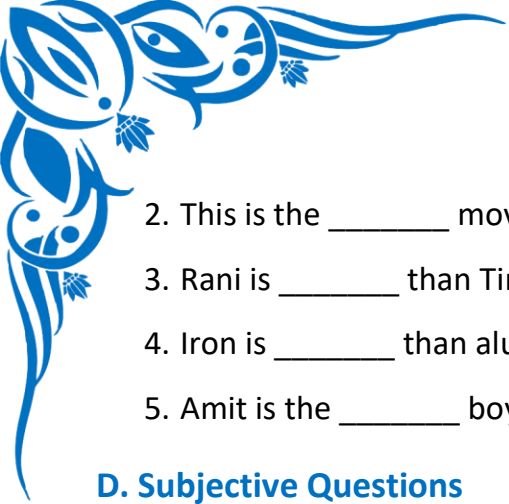

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
1. tall	(a) bigger	(i) happiest
2. big	(b) taller	(ii) laziest
3. happy	(c) lazier	(iii) tallest
4. lazy	(d) happier	(iv) biggest
5. fat	(e) fatter	(v) fattest

Write the correct matchings (e.g., 1 – b – iii)

C. Fill in the blanks;

Use the correct form of the adjective in brackets

1. He is _____ than his brother. (tall)

2. This is the _____ movie I have ever watched. (interesting)
3. Rani is _____ than Tina. (lazy)
4. Iron is _____ than aluminum. (heavy)
5. Amit is the _____ boy in the class. (clever)

D. Subjective Questions

1. What are the three degrees of comparison? Explain with one example each.
2. Write three adjectives and their comparative and superlative forms.
3. Make a sentence using the comparative form of the word "kind."
4. Write a sentence each using positive, comparative, and superlative degrees for the adjective "sweet".
5. Correct the error in this sentence and explain: "Rita is more prettier than Sita."