

Structure of a Teeth

1. True or False:-

- A. The Part of the tooth that is visible above the gum is called the crown.
- B. It is very easy to scratch the caramel.
- C. Inside the dentine is a soft portion, which has blood vessels and Heresies called the pulp.
- D. The Part of the tooth that is inside the gum is called Enamel.
- E. Teeth differ from herbivores to omnivores.

2. Fill in the blanks.

- A. _____ is absent in the herbivores.
- B. _____ use their teeth for biting cutting and chewing leaves and fruits.
- C. In _____ like man all types of teeth except the caninel are well developed.
- D. _____ are less useful to man as we eat cooked meat.

3. Answer the following questions:

A. How many parts of tooth are there?

---

---

B. What is Dentine?

---

---

C. What is the function of Dentine?

---

---

D. What is the color of blood Vessels?

---

---

E. What is a crown?

---

---