

Absorption of Digested Food, Waste Food in Large Intestine

1. True or False:-

- A. After the process of digestion, food is now a simple soluble liquid.
- B. All parts of the food can be digested by the body.
- C. Maximum water absorption occurs in intestine.
- D. The large intestine is the site of absorption by digested food.

2. Fill in the blanks.

- A. Large intestine absorbs _____ and some _____ from the undigested food.
- B. The large intestine, is also helpful in _____ process.
- C. The solid part of waste comes through _____.
- D. _____ takes food to all cells of the body.
- E. The _____ absorbs most of the nutrients in your food.

3. Answer the following questions:-

A. How does food become waste in the large intestine?

B. What happens to waste materials in the large intestine?

C. What are the three major functions of large intestine?

D. What is large intestine?
