

Digestion Process (Digestion In Mouth)

1. True or False:-

- A. Food is fast broken down into larger pieces by the teeth.
- B. The sharp front teeth (molar) bite and cut the food.
- C. The teeth at the back are flat.
- D. Saliver has digestive juices that start the digestion of starch in the mouth itself.
- E. Tooth helps to mix the food with the saliva.

2. Fill in the blanks.

- A. _____ is a juice made by the salivary glands mixes well with the food while chewing.
- B. _____ helps to mix the food with the saliva and to push the food into the food pipe.
- C. _____ is where digestion of food starts with the help of saliva.
- D. _____ takes place in number of steps.

3. Answer the following questions:-

A. What is the main process of digestion in the mouth?

---

---

B. What stages of digestion are there in the mouth?

---

---

C. What saliva contains?

---

---

D. Which organ connects the mouth to the Stomach in?

---

---