

How Do Plants Use Food

1. Write True or False:-

A. Food prepared by the leaves is called stomach.

B. Starch is a kind of sugar.

C. Plants use starch to produce energy for growth.

D. The stored starch is further consumed by the animals and human being.

2. Fill in the blanks.

A. Without _____ Process, life on earth as we know it would not be possible.

B. To make food plants need _____.

C. Starch is utilized by the plants, to produce cells and to repair the _____ ones.

D. Plants store extra food in the form of _____.

3. Answer the following questions:

A. What is Starch?

B. How do Plants make their own food?

C. What is the use of stored starch?

D. Which part of the plants we eat as food?
