

BE GOOD

1. Answer the following questions:

A. According to the poet, why should children gain knowledge?

B. The poet does not want children to judge others. Why?

C. What will happen if we obey our parents?

D. How can we earn?

E. What should children behave like?

F. Why should we not judge others?

2. True / False

- A. Children can become sweet be disobeying their parents. ☐
- B. Children are the future leaders. ☐
- C. Everyone can earn without knowledge. ☐
- D. Children should never be scared of any test. ☐
- E. Everyone should live peacefully with their sisters and brothers. ☐
- F. God does not want you to be bad. ☐
- G. Gods wants every one to become good and strong. ☐

3. Circle the pronouns in the following sentences.

- A. I am taking this class because it will fulfill the requirement for English.
- B. He is wearing a suit today.
- C. It is my turn to talk.
- D. Do you want me to help?
- E. He is working in the office today.
- F. It does not make sense to me.
- G. We are going to class now.
- H. They want to leave early.

4. ACTIVITY

Write five lines of good etiquettes.

- A. _____
- B. _____
- C. _____
- D. _____
- E. _____