

Dispersal of Seeds

1. Answer the following questions.

A. What is dispersal of seeds?

B. What are the elements that are used to grow a new plant?

C. What do you mean by wind dispersal?

2. Write True or False:-

A. All plant grow near the parent plant only.

B. Plants are stationary and remain fixed to the ground.

C. Seeds are transfer from one place to another.

D. Plants doesn't need water, food and space.

3. Fill in the blanks:-

- A. _____ is important for growing new plant.
- B. A plant needs _____ to grow.
- C. _____ transfer seeds from one place to another.
- D. _____ are involved in scattering of plants.

4. Match the following-

Column A	Column B
i. Primary parts	A. Chickpeas, walnuts
ii. Nuts	B. Stem, root and leaves
iii. Parts of plant	C. Embryo, endosperm, seed coat