

Movement in Animals

1. Answer the following questions:

A. What is locomotory organs?

B. How do aquatic animals move?

C. Write the importance of locomotion in animals.

D. How do aerial animals move?

2. Write True or False:-

A. Animals have tendency to move from one place to another.

B. Insects have six or eight legs to move and a pair of wings to fly.

C. Movement in water is not a type of locomotion in animals.

3. Fill in the blanks:-

- A. _____ have pair of wings to fly.
- B. Amphibians have _____ and _____ without scales.
- C. _____ is the process through which an organism moves.
- D. Fishes have _____ to swim in water.

4. Match the following:-

Column A	Column B
i. Run	A.
ii. Fly	B.
iii. Flaps	C.
iv. Waddle	D.
v. Lopes	E. 