Skull

1. Answer the following questions:

   A. Define skull.

   _____

   _____

   B. Draw a diagram of human skull.

   C. How many bones a skull is made up of?

   _____

   _____

   D. How many facial bones are there?

   _____

   _____

2. Write True or False:-

   A. The function of the skull include protection of the brain.

   B. The facial skeleton is formed by the bones supporting the face.

   C. The sinuses are lined with respiratory epithelium.

   D. The upper temporal fenestrae are also known as the supertemporal fenestrae.

3. Fill in the blanks:-

   A. The skull is composed of four bones _____, _____, _____ and _____.

   B. Human skull supports the structure of the _____and forms a cavity for the _____.

   C. The _____are openings in the skull.

4. Match the following:-

Column A	Column B
i. Skull	A. Hinge joint
ii. Hip	B. Eight flat bone
iii. Elbow	C. Ball and socket joint