

Uses of Matter in Our Daily Life

A. Choose the Correct Answer:

1. Which of the following objects is made of metal?

- | | |
|-----------------|-------------------|
| a) Wooden chair | b) Iron nail |
| c) Cotton shirt | d) Plastic bottle |

2. What material is used to make glass windows?

- | | |
|-----------|------------|
| a) Rubber | b) Plastic |
| c) Sand | d) Paper |

3. Which matter is used to make clothes?

- | | |
|----------|-----------|
| a) Wood | b) Cotton |
| c) Glass | d) Iron |

B. Fill in the Blanks:

- _____ is used to make jewelry because it is shiny and valuable.
- Pots and pans are often made of _____ because it conducts heat well.
- We use _____ to make rubber tires.

C. Case Study:

Ravi's mother bought some items from the market:

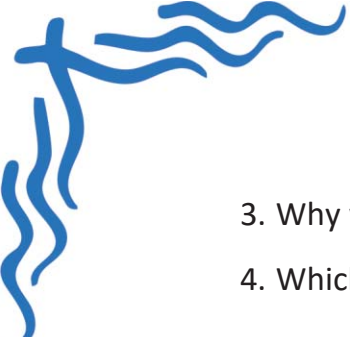

- A wooden table for the living room.
- Steel utensils for the kitchen.
- A cotton bedsheet for the bedroom.
- Plastic containers to store food.

After a week, Ravi noticed that:

- The wooden table got scratches but remained strong.
- The steel utensils were easy to clean and did not break.
- The cotton bedsheet was soft and comfortable.
- The plastic containers were light and easy to carry.

Case Study Questions:

1. What material was the table made of?
2. Which material was used to make the utensils?

-
3. Why were plastic containers easy to carry?
 4. Which material do you think is best for storing food and why?

D. Short Answer Questions:

1. Name two things made of plastic that you use daily.
2. Why do we use wood to make furniture?
3. How is metal useful in making tools and machines?

E. Long Answer Questions:

1. Explain how different materials like wood, metal, plastic, and cloth are used in our daily lives.
 2. Describe why glass is used for making windows and mirrors.
 3. Discuss the importance of using the right material for different objects, like using metal for cooking utensils and cotton for making clothes.
- 