

Nouns – Gender

A. Choose the correct Answer:

- Which of the following is a masculine noun?
(a) queen (b) sister
(c) king (d) aunt
- Select the feminine form of 'actor'.
(a) actress (b) actorin
(c) actorette (d) actorly
- What type of gender is the word "table"?
(a) Masculine (b) Feminine
(c) Common (d) Neuter
- 'Doctor' is an example of:
(a) Masculine gender
(b) Feminine gender
(c) Common gender
(d) Neuter gender
- The correct feminine of "king" is:
(a) princess (b) duchess
(c) queen (d) countess
- Which noun is incorrectly matched?
(a) lion – lioness
(b) emperor – empress
(c) poet – poetry
(d) host – hostess

7. Identify the neuter noun:

- (a) pen (b) niece
(c) teacher (d) son

8. What is the opposite gender of "nephew"?

- (a) cousin (b) niece
(c) aunt (d) mother

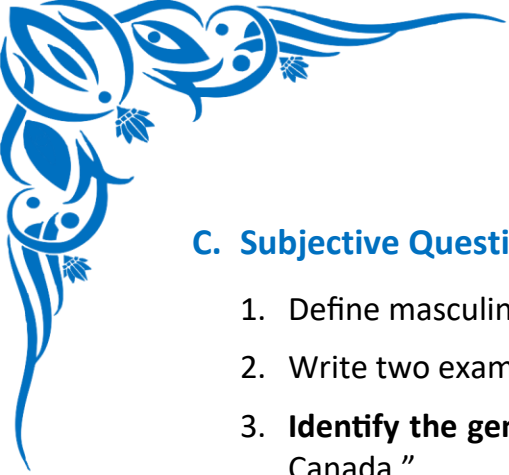

B. Match the Following

Match Column A (Masculine) with Column B (Feminine)

Column A	Column B
1. poet	(a) aunt
2. uncle	(b) mare
3. baron	(c) poetess
4. horse	(d) baroness
5. son	(e) daughter

Write your answers:

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____
4. _____ 5. _____

C. Subjective Questions

1. Define masculine and feminine gender with one example each.
2. Write two examples of common gender nouns.
3. Identify the gender of the underlined noun in the sentence: “My cousin lives in Canada.”
4. Rewrite the sentence by changing the gender of the underlined words: “The queen loves her daughter.”
5. Read the following passage and underline all neuter gender nouns: Ravi packed his bag with a notebook, pencil, and lunchbox. He placed it on the table.