

Importance, Care and and Protection of Animals

A. Choose the correct answer:

1. Why is it important to take care of animals?

- a) Because they are harmful to humans
- b) Because they are an important part of nature
- c) Because they destroy crops
- d) Because they do not need food

2. Which of the following is a way to protect animals?

- a) Cutting down forests
- b) Hunting animals for fun
- c) Providing shelter and food to animals
- d) Keeping animals in small cages

3. Which animal is commonly used to help humans in farming?

- a) Dog
- b) Horse
- c) Cow
- d) Ox

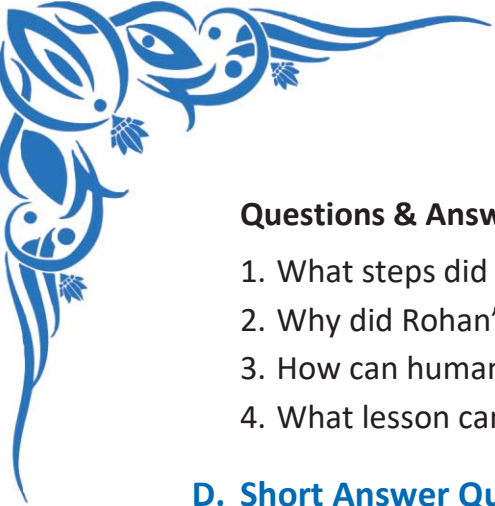

B. Fill in the Blanks:

1. Animals help maintain the balance of _____ in nature.
2. We should never harm animals because they also have the right to _____.
3. Many animals, such as cows and buffaloes, provide us with _____.

C. Case Study:

A farmer named Ravi had a small farm where he grew crops and took care of cows, goats, and hens. He always provided them with proper food, water, and shelter. His cows gave him milk, and his hens laid eggs, which helped him earn a living. One day, he noticed that some stray animals were struggling to find food, so he decided to keep a small feeding area outside his farm. Over time, the number of birds and animals visiting his farm increased.

One of his neighbors, Rohan, did not take care of his animals properly. His cows and goats often wandered onto the roads, looking for food, and many of them became weak and sick.

Questions & Answers:

1. What steps did Ravi take to care for the animals on his farm?
2. Why did Rohan's animals become weak and sick?
3. How can humans help stray animals survive?
4. What lesson can we learn from Ravi's behavior?

D. Short Answer Questions:

1. Why is it important to be kind to animals?
2. How do animals help humans in daily life?
3. What can we do to protect animals from harm?

E. Long Answer Questions:

1. Explain the importance of animals in our environment and how they contribute to human life.
2. Discuss different ways in which we can take care of domestic and wild animals.
3. Why is it important to protect animals from cruelty, and what steps can people take to prevent animal abuse?