

Introduction of Motion and Measurement of Distances

1. Fill in the blanks

- A. Motion that repeats itself after some period of time is called _____ motion.
- B. 1 meter _____ mm.
- C. 1 kg _____ grams.
- D. 12 feet _____ inches.
- E. 1 ton _____ kg.
- F. Helicopters are useful in _____ operations.

2. True or false

- A. Air transport is the fastest way of travelling.
- B. Cargo ships are used for sending goods to one place to another.
- C. To board a train we must go to the airport.
- D. Vehicles are run only by engines.
- E. We use different means of transport to travel to different places.

3. Match the following:-

Column A	Column B
I. 1 m	A. 10 mm
II. 1 cm	B. 1000 m
III. 1 km	C. 100 cm
IV. 1 foot	D. 1 m
V. 1000 mm	E. 12 inches

4. Answer the following questions

A. What is transportation? Name the different modes of transportation.

B. What is the difference between public and private transportation?

C. Change 5 kg apples to grams?

D. A tree's height is 5 feet. Convert it into inches.