

Garbage Disposal

1. Fill in the blanks

- A. The garbage taken to the low lying area is called _____
- B. Waste can be managed by _____ and then _____ them.
- C. _____ is the low cost method for managing biodegradable waste.
- D. The use of a variety of earthworms called _____
- E. The Prime Minister of India launched the _____ and aim of this is to create an open _____. India.

2. True or false

- A. We can dispose of the garbage into the water.
- B. Composting is the oldest method of disposal.
- C. Disposing of non-biodegradable waste is very easy.
- D. Landfills are another way for disposing waste.
- E. We generate so much garbage in our day-to-day activities

3. Match the following:-

Column A	Column B
I. Biodegradable	A. Red worms
II. Non-biodegradable	B. Trash
III. Vermicomposting	C. Waste from kitchen
IV. Waste	D. Plastic

4. Answer the following questions

A. What is garbage and who collects it and how?

B. How we can classify waste in different ways? Describe them on the basis of disposal and mechanism

C. What is segregation of waste? How can biodegradable waste be managed?

D. Explain about non-biodegradable waste

E. How do we generate garbage in our daily activities? Explain