

Introduction Sorting Materials into Groups

1. Fill in the blanks

- A. Some substances can disappear in water. We call them _____
- B. Oxygen gas _____ In water.
- C. The materials, through which things can be seen, are called _____

2. True or false

- A. Materials are look different from each other.
- B. Metals have luster.
- C. Iron, copper, and aluminum are examples of metals.
- D. We can scratch all the materials easily.

3. Match the following:-

Column A	Column B
I. Soluble	A. Cotton
II. Insoluble	B. Iron
III. Soft material	C. Wooden box
IV. Hard material	D. Glass
V. Opaque material	E. Doesn't mix
VI. Transparent material	F. Dissolve completely

4. Answer the following questions

A. What is material? What can we make with it?

B. Why do metals lose their shine? Name any two examples of metal

C. Name any five solid material those disappear and doesn't disappear in the water

D. What are the properties of materials?