

Materials and Classification of Materials

1. Fill in the blanks

- A. Cardboard carton is an example of _____
- B. _____ solids are separated from water.
- C. Soft materials can be _____ very easily.
- D. Sponge is _____ material.
- E. Aluminium is an example of _____ material.

2. True or false

- A. The material may float or sink in water.
- B. Oil can dissolves in water completely.
- C. Flowers, leaves can float on water.
- D. Salt doesn't dissolve in the water.
- E. Oil has soluble properties.

3. Match the following:-

Column A	Column B
I. Crockery	A. Wood
II. Jewellery	B. Plastic
III. Sketch	C. Glass
IV. Blanket	D. Metal
V. Pencil	E. Silk, cotton, nylon

VI. Clothes	F. Cotton
-------------	-----------

4. Answer the following questions

A. What is translucent material? Give two examples

B. We can divide material in two groups on the basis of scratch. Name them with examples

C. What is soluble and insoluble material? Explain with examples

D. What are transparent and opaque materials? Provide examples