

Characteristics of Living Things

1. Fill in the blanks

- A. Breathing is a part of process called _____
- B. We breathe out _____
- C. Earthworms breathe through their _____
- D. Fishes breathe _____ through
- E. The plants use _____ to produce food.
- F. The process of _____ in which all organisms getting rid of wastage.
- G. Living things produce their own kind through _____

2. True or false

- A. All organisms show growth.
- B. In the breathing process animals like cows, dogs, and cats are similar to humans.
- C. The leaves breathe through their tiny pores.
- D. The respiration in plants takes place day and night.

3. Match the following:-

Column A	Column B
I. Fresh water	A. Tropical
II. Desert	B. Temperate grassland
III. Wetlands	C. Hot and dry
IV. Grasslands	D. Ponds
V. Forest	E. Rivers, lakes

4. Answer the following questions

A. What is living and non-living things? Provide examples

B. Do all organisms need food? If yes, the why

C. What is a stimulus? Do all organisms respond to stimuli? Provide examples

D. What is reproduction? Do all organisms reproduce their own kind? Provide examples