

Nouns

A. Choose the correct Answer;

1. Which of the following is a common noun?

- (a) India (b) city
(c) Ganga (d) Shakespeare

2. Identify the abstract noun:

- (a) mango (b) boy
(c) honesty (d) table

3. What is the plural of 'leaf'?

- (a) leafs (b) leaves
(c) leaves (d) leafies

4. Which is a collective noun?

- (a) class (b) boy
(c) table (d) rice

5. Select the feminine form of 'actor':

- (a) actron (b) actress
(c) actress (d) actorin

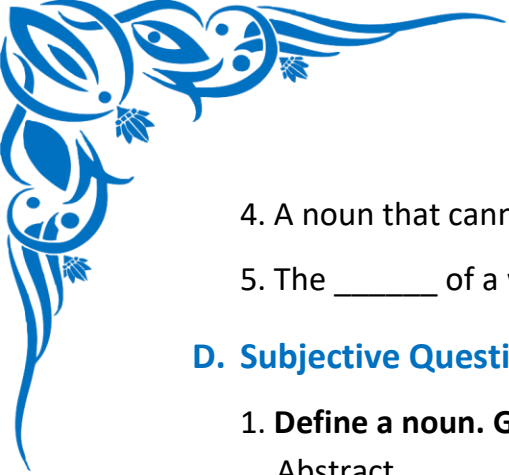

B. Match the Following;

Match the nouns in Column A with their types in Column B.

| Column A | Column B |
|------------|--------------------|
| 1. courage | A. Proper Noun |
| 2. soldier | B. Abstract Noun |
| 3. bouquet | C. Common Noun |
| 4. Mumbai | D. Neuter Gender |
| 5. table | E. Collective Noun |

C. Fill in the Blanks;

1. A _____ noun names a group of things or people considered as one.
2. The plural of 'child' is _____.
3. _____ is the feminine form of 'prince'.

4. A noun that cannot be counted is called an _____ noun.
5. The _____ of a word shows whether it is male, female, both or none.

D. Subjective Questions;

1. Define a noun. Give two examples of each type: Proper, Common, Collective, and Abstract.
2. Convert the following masculine nouns to their feminine forms: king, host, duke, lion.
3. Identify and underline the nouns in the sentence: 'The brave soldiers fought with courage.' Also, name their types.
4. Write a short paragraph (3-4 lines) using at least one noun from each category: common, proper, abstract, and collective.
5. Explain the difference between countable and uncountable nouns with two examples each.