

The Future Tense

A. Choose the correct Answer;

1. Which sentence is in simple future tense?

- (a) She goes to school.
- (b) She will go to school.
- (c) She has gone to school.
- (d) She went to school.

2. What is the correct future form of "eat"?

- (a) ate (b) will eat
- (c) eating (d) has eaten

3. Identify the future continuous sentence:

- (a) He was running.
- (b) He is running.
- (c) He will be running.
- (d) He had run.

4. Which sentence shows a completed future action?

- (a) I will be sleeping.
- (b) I will have slept.
- (c) I slept.
- (d) I have slept.

5. Choose the correct future perfect continuous sentence:

- (a) I will been working.
- (b) I shall have been working.
- (c) I had been working.
- (d) I be working.

6. What is the meaning of "She will have completed the project by Monday"?

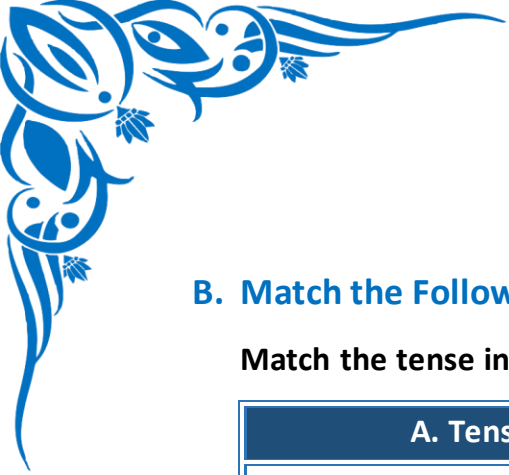

- (a) She will start Monday.
- (b) She will finish on Monday.
- (c) She will have finished before Monday.
- (d) She is finishing now.

7. What is the negative form of "He will call you"?

- (a) He will not call you.
- (b) He do not call you.
- (c) He not will call you.
- (d) He shall no call.

8. Which is the interrogative form of "You will attend the class"?

- (a) Do you attend class?
- (b) You will attend class?
- (c) Will you attend the class?
- (d) Attend you will the class?

B. Match the Following;

Match the tense in Column A with its example or usage in Column B.

A. Tense Form	B. Example/Use
1. Simple Future	A. I will go to the market.
2. Future Continuous	B. She will be reading at 8 p.m.
3. Future Perfect	C. We will have completed the task.
4. Future Perfect Continuous	D. He will have been working for 3 hours.
5. "Will she be singing?"	E. Future Continuous (Interrogative)
6. "By noon, I will have eaten"	F. Future Perfect

C. Subjective Questions;

1. Define simple future tense and give an example.
2. Write one sentence in future continuous tense.
3. Change the sentence to future perfect tense: "She finishes her work."
4. Fill in the blank with future perfect continuous: "By July, I _____ (live) here for three years."
5. Write a short paragraph (3–4 lines) using all four future tense forms.
6. Identify the tenses used in the sentence: "By 9 PM, she will have been studying for 4 hours."