

Nutrition in ruminant

1. Fill in the blanks.

- A. _____ are grass eating animals.
- B. _____ is the largest and first chamber of the stomach.
- C. _____ is the place where food enters after rumination.

2. True or false

- A. The grass is rich in cellulose.
- B. The Ruminants store their food in rumen.
- C. In Rumen, a bacteria helps in digestion of cellulose.

3. Answer the following questions:-

- A. What is remuneration? Name any five ruminants.
- B. Why humans cannot digest cellulose? Explain it