

Advanced Figures of Speech

Exercise 1:

Similes and Metaphors

- A. The water was as clear as crystal.
- B. The world is a stage.
- C. She danced like a swan on the lake.
- D. His heart was a cold, hard stone.
- E. The storm was a raging bull.
- F. Her voice was music to his ears.
- G. The sun was a golden ball in the sky.
- H. He was a towering figure in the world of science.
- I. The wind whispered secrets through the trees.
- J. The moon was a ghostly galleon tossed upon cloudy seas.

Exercise 2:

Personification and Alliteration

- A. The stars danced playfully in the moonlit sky.
- B. The wind howled through the night, angry and fierce.
- C. The sun smiled down on the happy children playing in the park.
- D. The snake slithered silently through the grass.
- E. The flowers bowed their heads in the gentle breeze.
- F. The ocean roared with anger as the storm approached.
- G. The bird's beautiful melody echoed through the forest.
- H. The trees whispered secrets to each other in the quiet of the night.
- I. The lion's mighty roar shook the ground beneath their feet.
- J. The fire crackled and popped in the fireplace.

Exercise 3:

Hyperbole and Onomatopoeia

- A. The bag weighed a ton.
- B. The clock tick-tocked loudly in the silent room.
- C. The line for the concert was a mile long.
- D. The fireworks boom echoed through the valley.
- E. She had a million things to do before the deadline.

