

Introduction of Noun Clauses

Exercise 1:

Directions: Underline the noun clause in each sentence and identify its type (subject, object, or complement).

- A. What you said made me angry.
- B. I don't know where my keys are.
- C. His greatest fear is that he will fail the test.
- D. Whether you come or not, we will start the movie.
- E. She believes that honesty is always the best policy.
- F. Whoever finishes the race first will get a prize.
- G. I heard that she got a promotion.
- H. His main concern is how he will pay his bills.
- I. We are all hoping that it doesn't rain on our vacation.
- J. The fact that she never gives up inspires me.

Exercise 2:

Directions: Identify the noun clause in each sentence and its function (subject, object, or complement).

- A. That she is talented is not in doubt.
- B. He told me what his favorite book is.
- C. My hope is that the weather will be good tomorrow.
- D. She asked him where he was going.
- E. It is important to know what the rules are.
- F. Whether or not she comes to the party doesn't matter.
- G. They wondered if the movie was worth seeing.
- H. His dream is to become a doctor.
- I. I can't decide which movie to watch.

