

Introduction of My Family

Family

Family means group of people living together they all are connected or having blood relation with each other. Family member live together, eat together and have a beautiful.

When we celebrate festivals with our family than our happiness becomes double. We should enjoy every moment with our family.

