

Months of a Year

Understanding the Topic

- There are 12 months in a year.
- Each month has a name and a certain number of days.
- A year starts with January and ends with December.
- Some months have 31 days, some have 30 days, and February has 28 days (or 29 days in a leap year).
- Let's learn the names of all 12 months in order.

12 Months in Order

- | | |
|-------------|--------------|
| 1. January | 7. July |
| 2. February | 8. August |
| 3. March | 9. September |
| 4. April | 10. October |
| 5. May | 11. November |
| 6. June | 12. December |

Easy Way to Remember

👉 Use your fingers!

- Knuckles are 31-day months,
- Spaces between are 30-day months (except February).

Knuckle–Space–Knuckle–Space... (Start from January on your left hand's first knuckle)

Examples with Solutions

1. What is the 5th month of the year?

Answer: May is the 5th month.

2. Which month comes after August?

Answer: September comes after August.

3. How many months are there in a year?

Answer: There are 12 months in a year.

4. Which month has the fewest days?

Answer: February has the fewest days (28 or 29 days).

5. What is the last month of the year?

Answer: December is the last month of the year.

Summary Points

- There are 12 months in a year.
- The first month is January.
- The last month is December.
- February has 28 or 29 days.
- Other months have 30 or 31 days.