

How Clothes Are Made

Clothes are made of cotton, wool, plastic, silk etc.

Types of dresses: In Summer:-

We wear cotton clothes in summer. They absorb sweat and keep us cool. Clothes are made from the thin threads.

Cotton

- A. It is used to making clothes.
- B. Cotton is a natural fiber.
- C. We get cotton from plants.
- D. Firstly cotton is transform into thread by machines.
- E. Than it is woven into fabric or a cloth.

Wool

- A. Wool is a textile fiber obtained from sheep and some other animals.
- B. We get angora from rabbits.
- C. Wool is cut, cleaned, washed and dried.
- D. It is spun into threads.
- E. Threads are knitted into wool.
- F. Wool is used for making clothes.

How Clothes Are Made

Silk

- A. It is also a natural fiber.
- B. We get silk from silkworms.
- C. It is secreted from the mouth of the worm.
- D. It wraps around the body of the worm.
- E. These are called cocoons and they are boiled and threads are rolled.
- F. These threads are woven into clothes.
- G. Silk woven cloth is so beautiful.

Nylon

- A. It is a manmade fiber not natural.
- B. When we make any cloth from nylon, they durable.
- C. Nylon is made in factories.

⇒ Clothing can help against cold or hot conditions, and it can provide a hygienic barrier, keeping infection away from the body. It can protect us from injury and discomfort. Clothing also provides protection from harmful rays of sun.

⇒ We look attractive and smart also.