

Police Station

- A. Police Station is the place where the police are always present for our help.
- B. Police are there in the police station to deal with thieves, robbers, and corrupt people.
- C. People go to the police station with their complaints.
- D. The police in the police station register our complaint and take action on it.
- E. They maintain law and order in the city.
- F. They catch the thieves and put them behind the bars.

