

Post Office

Neighbourhood Service

They include management and maintenance of housing and the environment, waste management, supporting people to develop their communities and keeping people safe and healthy. They are very essential and without them our life will be difficult. They make our life complete and easy and comfortable.

Let's learn some services:

Post Office

- A. A post office is a facility through which people can send parcels and letters.
- B. They delivered to other locations.
- C. We drop letter in the red coloured box.
- D. Letters are sorted out and sent to different places.
- E. We purchase postcards, inland letters stamps and aerogram from post office.
- F. We can also send money by the money orders.
- G. We can deposit money in saving account in the post office.

