Fact File

- Like us, animals also love freedom. We should not capture and put them in cage.
