

Metals from the Earth

Metals are formed naturally below the surface of the earth. Most of the metals are lustrous or shiny. They are made of substances that were never alive. These metals used for making machines, utensils, vehicles etc. We make jewellery from gold and silver. Sand is used for making glass. We get oil like crude oil, kerosene etc.

