

Fish

Fish live under water and they breathe in water with gills. They feed on small animals and insects found in the water. A fish is an aquatic animal that lives underwater. It cannot breathe outside the water. It can breathe only in the water with the help of its gills. They can swim very fast underwater.

