

Feet and Claws

With the help of their feet and claws they catch food and walk. Their claws also explain their way of living. All birds have two feet and four toes. The feet and claws help the bird walk, wade through water and catch food. Different birds have different kinds of feet to help them live in their surroundings or gather food.

Special Features of Birds

- A. A four-chambered heart.
- B. They usually have two wings covered with feathers.
- C. A beak with no teeth.
- D. A lightweight but strong skeleton.
- E. Production of hard-shelled eggs.