

Scratching birds

Scratching birds like hens and cocks use their claws to scratch the earth for seeds and worms. These birds have strong feet with three toes in the front and a short toe in the back. Each of these toes has a sharp horny claw. Scratching birds walk and run on the ground. Hen is a domestic bird, which is found almost all over the world. It fills its stomach by eating grains, insects etc.

