

Wading Birds

Wading birds live on or near water. They depend on water as a source of food, shelter and nesting sites. Wading birds do not swim. A wading bird is a long-legged bird, such as a crane, heron, or stork that frequents shallow water, especially in search of food. Flamingo, Kingfisher, Grey Heron are examples of wading birds.

