

Habits of Different Birds

Tailorbird

- A. The tailorbird creates its nest by sewing leaves together with its beak.
- B. They are distinctive in having a long upright tail, greenish body and rust color forehead and crown.
- C. They stitch large leaves with beak and use thread, straw wool to stitch.

Weaver Bird

- A. Weaver birds are the only birds recorded with the ability to tie knots.
- B. The nests made by these birds are the largest structures built by birds.
- C. It is a very small bird.
- D. It makes nest by weaving grass in it.
- E. It hangs nest from the branch.

Habits of Different Birds

Woodpecker

- A. Woodpeckers have sharp and strong beaks for effective drilling into the trunk.
- B. Their long sticky tongue helps them to grasp insects.
- C. They have a flexible and small brain.
- D. They make hole in the trunk of the tree.
- E. It is made up of wooden chips.

Partridge

- A. This bird has a rusty face, tail, and a dark belly patch.
- B. It digs a hole in the ground.
- C. It lines its nest with grass and dry leaves.

Habits of Different Birds

Vulture

- A. Vultures are large birds that do not hunt for food.
- B. Instead they feed on the remains of dead animals.
- C. They use their broad wings to soar high in the sky, searching for food.
- D. It gathers few sticks and make nest them in the shape of hollow cup.

Penguin

- A. They are a group of aquatic flightless birds.
- B. They collect pebbles and stones to make its nest.

